

A Dog's Way Home by W. Bruce Cameron

A lost pup travels 400 miles to find her way home

The Rhythm Section by Mark Burnell

After a plane crash kills her family, a woman goes on a revenge mission against the people responsible for the tragedy.

The Knife of Never Letting Go by Patrick Ness

Officially called Chaos Walking, the movie is about a world with no women, where men can hear all of each other's thoughts.

Where'd You Go, Bernadette by Maria Semple

When her mysterious mother goes missing, 15-year-old Bee goes on a journey to find her and discover the secrets of Bernadette's past.

Three Seconds by Roslund and Hellstrom

An ex-con goes undercover in prison to infiltrate the mob.

The Good Shepherd by C.S. Forester

The movie's official title is Greyhound, and it's a World War II story about a commanding navy officer.

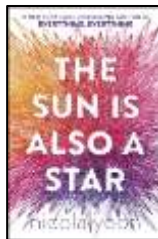

The Visible Filth by Nathan Ballingrud

Tentatively titled Transgression, this film follows a New Orleans bartender who begins to experience bizarre things after picking up a phone left at his bar.

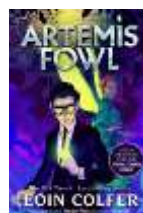

After by Anna Todd

A girl falls hard with a guy who is harboring a dark secret.

The Sun Is Also a Star by Nicola Yoon

Just as her family is facing deportation, a young woman falls in love.

Artemis Fowl by Eoin Colfer

Artemis is a master thief who will do anything to find his father, including kidnapping the fairy LEPrecon officer Holly Short.

It by Stephen King

In the second chapter of It, the now-adult Losers Club find themselves drawn back to their creepy hometown to face their fears once and for all.

The Woman in the Window by A.J. Finn

An agoraphobic New Yorker spends her time watching her neighbors until she sees more than she expected.

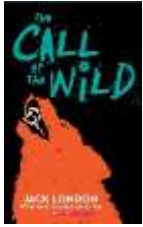

The Goldfinch by Donna Tartt

After his mother is killed during a bombing, a young boy is given a home by a wealthy Upper East Side family.

Little Women by Louisa May Alcott

Alcott's classic tale of sisterhood follows the four March sisters—Meg, Jo, Beth, and Amy—as they grow from girls to young women and learn about love, loss, and motherhood.

The Call of the Wild by Jack London

This live-action/CGI animated hybrid film will tell the classic tale of a sled dog's quest or survival

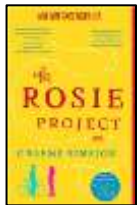

Pet Sematary by Stephen King

Louis Creed moves his family of four to a rural town with a secret in the forest.

The Nightingale by Kristin Hannah

Two sisters who are living in France at the beginning of World War II have their lives forever changed in dramatically different ways.

The Rosie Project by Graeme Simsion

A genetics professor with Asperger's Syndrome goes on a journey to help a young woman named Rosie find her biological father.

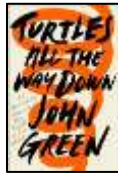

The Aftermath by Rhidian Brook

After World War II, a colonel and his wife are assigned to live in a house in Hamburg, but the home's previous occupant causes tension in their marriage.

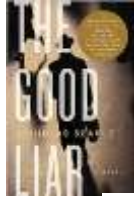

How to Train Your Dragon (Book 1) by Cressida Cowell

It follows the adventures of a Viking teen named Hiccup and his loyal pet dragon, Toothless.

Turtles All the Way Down by John Green

A 16-year-old girl with OCD decides to investigate the disappearance of a billionaire construction magnate with her best friend, and in turn grows close to the businessman's son.

The Good Liar by Nicholas Searle

Searle writes about a man named Roy who successfully deceives a wealthy widow he meets online. Told across a century's timeline, we discover long-held secrets with the turn of every page.

P.S. I Still Love You by Jenny Han

Laura Jean, finds herself in the predicament of falling for two boys at once.

Source – Internet
2/19/in

A selection of books that are coming out as movies in 2019.

READ THE BOOK THEN SEE THE MOVIE 2019

Mount Vernon City Library
315 Snoqualmie Street
Mount Vernon, WA 98273
360-336-6209